

TUESDAY.....MARCH 3

TILLMAN HAS NO REGRETS.

Senator Tillman of South Carolina has written a letter to the editor of a New York paper, under date of Feb. 20 and from which we take the following extracts:

"My uniform rule has been to treat criticism with silence. I break that rule now for a purpose, and that is to challenge those who have found so much to condemn in my recent speech in the Senate to a trial before a jury of their readers in which I can have a show of justice.

"If my language was unparliamentary, why did no Senator call me to order? If the charges were untrue, why has no Senator answered them? Is it unparliamentary and indecent to tell the truth? Are we sunk to that low estate that falsehood and treachery and official dishonesty cannot be mentioned without calling down an avalanche of abuse and slander? What other Senators have whispered among themselves, I have spoken aloud, and in plain words. What a majority of people have thought and felt as I have uttered.

This is the sum of my offending. The thousands of letters that have poured in on me from every quarter of the Union, and mostly from the North, and from men of every pursuit in life has given me assurance that the scales are falling from the eyes of the people, and that the truth bravely told has a sweet and wholesome sound.

"The American people, as a whole, the great common people, love the truth and love their country. They despise traitors, thieves and cowards. It is a large mass to move, but the lever is at work, and the issue is joined and the result will be known on election day. So far as I am individually concerned, and as far as my speech is concerned, I care nothing for the abuse heaped on me, and thank my critics for directing attention to my utterances. When my facts and arguments have been disproved, I will apologize. Until then, decency demands that men who abuse me for speaking the truth should let their readers see it and judge for themselves or reserve their epithets for men of their kind, who fear truth and love cowardice."

An Honest Officer.

Chief Crowley, the head of the San Francisco Police Department, has resigned on account of ill health and is desirous of a rest.

He has been in active service for nearly thirty years.

Amid the festering corruption of the most corrupt municipalities of the world he has won the respect of everybody by remaining honest. No corrupt money ever came into his hands, and amid ten thousand temptations he goes out of office as poor as he came, holding all these years a position where a corrupt man could have made a million dollars as easily as turning over his hand.

He was genial and kindly even to his treatment of the class of people that came under his hand. He never bullied or brow beat anybody. He treated all prisoners with patience, as if he pitied the men whom misfortune had compelled to seek bad paths, but when he hunted the right man to cover his hand closed on him like a vice, and he was a terror to evil doers, from one end of the country to the other.

It is safe to say that for character and ability combined no man in San Francisco can be found who can fill his place.

The boys of the University who take exceptions to Mr. Newlands appointing a non-resident of the State to a cadetship, have done the proper thing. The next Nevada cadet should be a Nevada raised boy and should go through a square competitive examination.

A special Cabinet meeting was held yesterday to discuss the Spanish American situation. A message was read from the Spanish Minister insisting that the United States disavow the action of the Senate, but it will be ignored.

The suit brought in the U. S. Court relative to lands formerly belonging to a half-breed Indian, was not brought on behalf of the Indian, but on behalf of the U. S. Government.

Truckee and her ice palace are again in working order. A snow blockade of a few weeks would convince the Truckeeites that their ice shop had turned mascot.

The discovery of a seventy foot ledge of gold bearing rock in Pine Nut is confirmed. The camp will doubtless be a hummer this summer.
